As the pro-life movement gathers at the nation's capital during the third week in January, a movement is being reinvigorated in the fight against the culture of death — a positive movement that is energizing the grassroots activists, inspiring legislative and cultural change, and transforming the pro-life community by creating unprecedented unity.

The personhood movement works to grant civil rights to all people, and upholds each and every human being's dignity and inherent value, from his or her point of creation until natural death. Personhood fosters the most basic form of social justice in America's legal system and instills respect for the same in her citizens.

Conference speakers will address personhood as the civil rights movement's last frontier, personhood initiatives at the state and federal levels, and how the media and technology can be used to benefit the movement.

Larger than the American Life League, larger than any other pro-life organization, personhood will be what we all proclaim and the banner under which we all move forward. Join us and discover the personhood movement!
