Stance on Human Embryonic Stem Cell Research

<https://www.bcrf.org/researchers/valerie-weaver/>

One of BCRF's researchers, Valerie Weaver, had an "active research program exploring the interplay between cell and tissue level force and human embryonic stem cell differentiation."

Stance on Contraception

<https://www.bcrf.org/blog/risk-factors-for-breast-cancer/>

For oral contraceptives, the organization state: "Oral hormone-based contraceptives may slightly increase risk, but some studies have shown no association and for many women, contraception's benefits far outweigh risk."

Stance on LGBTQ+

The tagline below comes from BCRF's Facebook page:

The Breast Cancer Research Foundation- "This month, we celebrate the LGBTQIA+ members of the BCRF family. Breast cancer knows no sexual orientation, gender, age, or race, but BCRF is committed to funding research that improves outcomes for all. Happy Pride!"
